

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST- PRIVACY NOTICE

Grifols is a global healthcare group founded in Barcelona in 1909 committed to improving the health and well-being of people around the world. Its three main business units - Biopharma, Diagnostic and Bio Supplies - develop, produce and market innovative solutions and services that are sold in more than 100 countries.

Grifols respects the privacy rights of all data subjects who entrust Grifols with their personal data and is committed to complying with the data protection regulations applicable in each country.

This privacy notice has been prepared in accordance with the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR") and applicable privacy and data protection laws, see Section 7 for specific provisions. It outlines Grifols' data collection practices and data subjects' rights in the context of Grifols collection, use and sharing of their personal data.

This privacy notice applies to the processing of personal data of any individuals whose personal data is provided to Grifols in relation to any potential conflict of interest.

1. Identification of the data controller(s)/owner(s) of the personal data

The data controller/owner is Grifols, S.A. with address for contact purposes at Parque Empresarial Can San Joan, Avenida de la Generalitat, 152-158, 08174, Sant Cugat del Valles (Barcelona) ("Grifols").

2. Identification of the data protection officer

The data protection officer acts as an interlocutor between Grifols and you in order to ensure Grifols' compliance with the data protection legislation and best protect your rights under such legislation. You may contact the data protection officer at dpo@grifols.com.

3. Purpose, lawful basis for processing, categories and recipients of personal data

Purpose	Categories of personal data and recipients	Lawful basis

3.1 Additional information about the lawful basis to process personal data

The table above shows the applicable lawful basis to process the personal data by purpose. In this section, you can find additional details of the lawfulness of the processing:

- Legitimate interest (of Grifols and/or any third party): Grifols is committed to conducting business with integrity and honesty, ensuring that personal interests do not compromise its legitimate business interests or influence the business judgment or decision-making of any Grifols' employee, including executives and directors. Therefore, Grifols pursues the following legitimate interests which override the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subjects, given that the processing is within the data subjects' reasonable expectations based on their relationship with Grifols:

GRIFOLS

- Maintain integrity, trust and compliance with ethical standards and legal obligations, and
- Daily management of a multinational group of companies and internal administration, which means sharing information with the companies of the Grifols group.

In any event, data subjects may request further information on the legitimate interest or exercise their right to object to the processing of their personal data based on legitimate interest by addressing their request to privacy@grifols.com.

3.2 Recipients of personal data

The following is a list of the different categories of recipients to whom Grifols may provide the personal data identified by purpose in the table in Section 3, and additional information about them, where applicable:

- Grifols' group companies: The list is available here.
- Providers of products and services: for example, information technology providers.

Grifols will endeavour that the personal data is only transferred to countries that offer an adequate level of data protection. If the personal data is processed in countries that do not offer said level of protection, Grifols and/or the providers (as the case may be) will adopt, if necessary, the appropriate safeguards (e.g. the standard contractual clauses included in the Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/914 of 4 June 2021, if the GDPR applies) to carry out such international data transfers in accordance with the applicable data protection legislation. Specific information on the appropriate safeguards applicable to each international data transfer can be obtained from Grifols at privacy@grifols.com

Grifols does not share personal data with any other third party unless it is authorised by the data subject or required by the applicable law.

4. Retention period

Grifols will retain the personal data for the time strictly necessary for the fulfilment of the purposes for which it has been collected or, if applicable, until the end of the statutes of limitation of any liabilities that may arise, and during the term required to comply with any applicable legal obligation.

5. Sources of personal data

If data subjects do not directly provide Grifols with their personal data, Grifols may obtain the personal data from other data subjects informing on potential conflicts of interest or from public sources, such as Internet or other public directories.

If the data subjects provide Grifols with personal data of any third parties, they undertake to previously inform said third parties of the transfer of their personal data to Grifols and to provide them with this privacy notice.

6. Data protection rights

The following data protection rights are applicable under the GDPR. Grifols undertakes to respect other data protection rights that may be applicable in accordance with the data protection legislation of each country.
