Grifols discloses transfers of value made to European healthcare professionals and healthcare organizations in 2023

- In line with its commitment to transparency, Grifols has disclosed for the eighth consecutive year all payments and other transfers of value related to medicines and medical technology made to healthcare professionals and healthcare organizations in the several European countries listed within the EFPIA's scope, including Spain.
- In 2022, Grifols made transfers of value in Europe amounting to Euro 14.5 million. This represents a decrease of 25% compared to 2021. 68.9% of the total were transfers of value related to R&D, amounting to Euro 10.0 million.
- Transfers of value to healthcare organizations and healthcare professionals amounted to Euro 4.5 million, representing a decrease of 4% compared to the previous year.
- Transfers of value in Spain decreased by 43% to Euro 7.1 million, although Spain generated 49% of the group's total transfers in Europe in 2023 and 62% of those related to R&D.
- In 2023, Grifols made transfers of value to 261 healthcare professionals in Spain that amounted to Euro 297,491 and 64 healthcare organizations, which totaled Euro 597,865.
- The EFPIA Code of Practice, which promotes transparency in industry interactions with healthcare professionals, healthcare organizations and patient organizations, applies specifically to medicines. Nonetheless Grifols expands its scope to include transfers unrelated to medications, as well as to all the company's divisions.
- In addition to Europe, Grifols applies this policy of transparency to the United States in accordance with CMS (Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services) Open Payments.
- All related information is public and available on the Grifols corporate website: www.grifols.com

About Grifols

Grifols is a global healthcare company founded in Barcelona in 1909 committed to improving the health and well-being of people around the world. A leader in essential plasma-derived medicines and transfusion medicine, the company develops, produces, and provides innovative healthcare services and solutions in more than 110 countries.

Patient needs and Grifols' ever-growing knowledge of many chronic, rare and prevalent conditions, at times life-threatening, drive the company's innovation in both plasma and other biopharmaceuticals to enhance quality of life. Grifols is focused on treating conditions across a broad range of therapeutic areas: immunology, hepatology and intensive care, pulmonology, hematology, neurology, and infectious diseases.

GRIFOLS

A pioneer in the plasma industry, Grifols continues to grow its network of donation centers, the world's largest with over 390 across North America, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, and China.

As a recognized leader in transfusion medicine, Grifols offers a comprehensive portfolio of solutions designed to enhance safety from donation to transfusion, in addition to clinical diagnostic technologies. It provides high-quality biological supplies for life-science research, clinical trials, and for manufacturing pharmaceutical and diagnostic products. The company also supplies tools, information and services that enable hospitals, pharmacies and healthcare professionals to efficiently deliver expert medical care.

Grifols, with more than 23,000 employees in more than 30 countries and regions, is committed to a sustainable business model that sets the standard for continuous innovation, quality, safety, and ethical leadership.

In 2023, Grifols' economic impact in its core countries of operation was EUR 9.6 billion. The company also generated 193,000 jobs, including indirect and induced.

The company's class A shares are listed on the Spanish Stock Exchange, where they are part of the Ibex-35 (MCE:GRF). Grifols non-voting class B shares are listed on the Mercado Continuo (MCE:GRF.P) and on the U.S. NASDAQ through ADRs (NASDAQ:GRFS).
